SUPPLIES NEEDED: 1-inch painter's tape, yard stick or 24-inch ruler, hair dryer. (friends can share)

In 2009, while living in KY, Beth Feltus volunteered for her local Barn Quilt Trail committee. The group painted 8' x 8' quilt patterns on boards for the sides of barns. She enjoyed this so much, she started her own business, Barn Squares of America, making blocks ranging from 2' x 2' for small sheds, fences and decks, to 4' x 4' blocks for garages, sides of homes, and 8' x 8' for barns and larger buildings. She is pleased to have several hundred beautiful works of art hanging all across the country. Check out her Facebook page, Barn Squares of America, for more information and examples of her work.
